Zoe McGarry & Ali Amour

Hi Zoe, welcome back to Elite! How have you been since your last appearance in Elite? Hey! Really good thank you!

How would you describe your style? Quirky.

What was it like to work with the Andy Watson on this shoot? It's always fun to shoot with Andy, he's such a nice guy... Always makes you feel at ease and always up for a laugh.

What was it like to work with Ali? She's lovely, she's so focused and ambitious and that really shows through her work.

What's her best feature? Her face in general is just absolutely flawless.

What's your best feature? I've been told my bum is my best feature before... Haha.

What was the funniest thing to happen at the shoot? Nothing out the ordinary, the standard nip slip or boob where it shouldn't be.

Model: Ali Amour & Zoe McGarry
Photographer: Andy Watson

A black and white photograph of two women with extensive tattoos. The woman on the left has a large parrot tattoo on her upper arm, a bird on her side, and a large portrait on her thigh. The woman on the right has a large floral and portrait tattoo on her upper arm, a bird on her side, and a large portrait on her thigh. They are both wearing dark, lace-trimmed underwear. The woman on the right is also wearing a large hoop earring.

BEARDS - YES OR NO? SHORT ONES!
LONG BEARDS ARE HORRIBLE.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I love skiing, gaming and partying!

So how can a guy impress you? I love to see someone with a passion for something. But whatever they do as long as they have confidence and a sense of humour, it's always a winner!

What is the naughtiest thing you've done? Spat in somebody's tea and didn't tell them haha.

Are you a high heels or trainers girl? Trainers all day, I can't walk in heels!

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? Big guys... I love tall guys.

Do you have any tattoos or piercings? I've got 17 piercings all together and plenty more room for tattoos!

Who would be your ideal housemate? Somebody clean, but laid back.

What's the worst idea you have ever had? All my ideas are bad.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Keep reading!

WHAT WAS THE FUNNIEST THING TO HAPPEN AT THE SHOOT?

ANOTHER FOR A SHOT.

Hi Ali, welcome back to Elite! How have you been since your last appearance in Elite?
Hiya! I've been busy, busy I am afraid!

How would you describe your style? My personal style? Maybe alternative/tattooed bohemian.

What was it like to work with the Andy Watson on this shoot? Andy is always awesome to work with. He's a really sweet guy.

What was it like to work with Zoe? Zoe was a sweetheart and really funny. An easy girl to get along with!

What's their best feature? Zoe had an awesome bum.

What's your best feature? I am not sure to be honest haha!

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? Yes. I am a make up artist at Illamasqua.

Do you have any tattoos or piercings? I have a sleeve, my upper back, right side of my chest, right side under bra, a thigh piece, script on both shins and some ankle tattoos. I also have angel bites, a nose ring, 16mm plugs and a belly button bar.

Are you a high heels or trainers girl? Trainers all the way!

Who would be your ideal housemate? I live with my ideal housemates already.

Beards - Yes or No? Yes and no. If a guy can grow a full beard yes but if not, don't try lads, you aren't fooling anyone.

What's the worst idea you have ever had? I can't think of one.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Thank you so much for supporting me and continually reading my features in Elite. I love you all. Mwah!

Hi Aleshia, welcome to Elite! How would you describe your style? I like to play around with alternative styles, right now I'm pretty goth, black everything as always!

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot? a pleasure! It was really good fun!

What was your favourite part of the shoot? Well it has to be the latex! Eustratia latex is amazing!

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I love horse riding and exploring new places. I also love to get involved with anything creative! I have a thirst for watching/reading anything dark and controversial, the occult has always been alluring.

So how can a guy impress you? Shouldn't have to try to impress, it's about who you are not what you are.

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? Now that would be telling!

Do you have any tattoos or piercings? Yes I do! I have my septum pierced, 3 horses on my thigh, my ribs tattooed, stomach and a pretty chest piece. All done by an amazing artist called G at the Talisman.

Are you a high heels or trainers girl? Well I'm 5'10 but I'm still gonna rock my platforms.

Who would be your ideal housemate? Someone who would like to hold dinner parties with me and fancy dress parties. Also someone who loves my kind of music so we can dance around like crazy.

Beards - Yes or No? Of course yes but trimmed in the Summer, keep that shit tidy!

What's the worst idea you have ever had? I've always wanted to buy a gorilla outfit and live like a gorilla for a day, eat bananas, climb trees... ya know the usual.

If you could, what would you like to un-see? Show me everything!

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? You stay classy Santiago!

Smooches!

Dear Leah, my best friend has cheated on her boyfriend. It was a one night stand on a drunken night out and they have had no contact since but as they've been together for a while, her boyfriend is also a good friend and its making things really awkward. He worships the ground she walks on and I feel terrible keeping this secret. Do I tell him?

What an uncomfortable situation. Firstly, I don't think you should be the one to tell him, your best friend deserves your discretion and if you tell him you'll lose your friend. There is also the chance that he'll be too upset to believe you and this will cause all sorts of problems. I do agree he needs to know however, but I think the best thing you can do is talk to your friend and explain how uncomfortable you're feeling and persuade her to tell him what happened. Be there for her, if she's cheated on a long term boyfriend who treats her well there could be some underlying issues that she could do with talking about.

Dear Leah, my boyfriend has started being very overprotective, he'll ask who I'm texting, ask where I'm going if I go out etc. At first I ignored it and told him he was being stupid but the final straw was when I was having a night out with the girls. We were all dancing and having a great time when he turned up with his friends and started causing a scene. He actually punched a random guy who approached me even though he saw me knock him back. I don't know what to do!

You need to confront your boyfriend about this before it gets out of hand as this sort of behaviour needs nipping in the bud before it becomes difficult to handle. Has anything changed in your boyfriend's life to trigger this sort of reaction? This sort of behaviour doesn't emerge overnight; there are probably some deep rooted issues here that need addressing as soon as possible, especially as violence is coming into play.

Talk to him, ask him what's changed and explain how its making you feel. If the situation becomes volatile or too heated, walk away from it instantly.

Dear Leah, my girlfriend is a model and I loathe the attention she gets from it. She's started doing riskier shoots and the comments she gets from it do my head in. She's happy with it and doesn't seem to understand how I'm feeling but its making me feel like crap having to compete with all this male attention.

Haha, you should have a chat with my boyfriend! It is difficult to watch others give your partner attention, I completely understand that, but with modelling it comes with the territory and if you want a successful relationship it's something you're going to have to learn to deal with. Judging from my own experiences with this, it is much better that you talk to her and tell her how you feel sooner rather than later. You no doubt know that she loves you and only has eyes for you, so don't get caught in the trap of seeking the same attention elsewhere. She is your girlfriend and she loves you, remember that. And hey, you're the one that gets to bang her! Not those other lads! You guys should love being able to say "my mrs is a super hot model" haha.

Model: Leah Harris

Photographer Jack Russell

Dear Leah, I feel like I always come last to my boyfriend. There is always something more important to him than me, his music, and his friends etc. He never puts me first in anything that he does and he'll cancel our plans for pretty much anything. I feel like he doesn't value our relationship.

Have you spoke to him about this? I'm one that strongly agrees with the whole "chicks before dicks, bros before hoes" mantra as his friends will still be there should anything happen to your relationship. However, there does need to be compromise in a relationship and he needs to realise that you are also an important factor in his life and he must value that. Talk to him, tell him how you feel and if nothing changes, walk away and find someone who will find time to make you a priority.

RUBY TRUE

Model: Ruby True | Photographer: Justine Louise | Words: Rich Alt-Girl Botherer

It's always wondrous to feature the work of Ruby True in Elite. How've you been superstar? Hey I am great thank you! Thank you for featuring me!

It's no secret that you've shot with a number of fabulous photographers in your career already. Your latest Elite feature continues that trend. What was it like working with our Elite snapper this time? Is every shoot a learning experience, or just a new opportunity to showcase your talents? It was great shooting with Justine Louise, it's great seeing women photographers doing so well like Gemma Edwards and Justine.

It's uncanny how much fun you portray in your pictures. Is that just a true reflection of the enjoyment you get out of modeling? This shoot was great fun with the ears from Ferox that made me get in the mood for being a kitty cat! I love playing about and experimenting in front of the camera and not just being another sultry pair of tits :P

What goes through your mind when you're working? Does the style of shoot dictate your mindset? If you're working glamour, are you thinking about making that sultry connection with the audience through the lens, or is it all about what your body is doing within the frame? Of course you have to connect with your eyes and be alert. It depends on the shoot, if I am having fun I want people to see that and get just as much fun out of it as me I think that fun and a smile is just as sexy as a sultry pout. I am very aware of my body and shapes and try bring something different to every shoot.

EARS & HOOD
BY FEROX

EARS BY FEROX PENTAGRAM HARNESS BY MALICE

Speaking of your body, it's always drool inducing in your pictures. Is it hard keeping in such fabulous shape? I work out regularly and eat well during the week, with high protein, low carbs and lots of fruit and veg. I have naturally big hips and I have to keep a eye on that. I also do aerial hoop regularly and have a rig set up at home.

This month's Elite feature sees you in impeccable form once again. What was the shoot like for you? Any bloopers per chance? Any outfits you were particularly fond of? Most importantly, any freebies? The shoot was great fun putting the outfits from Malice and Ferox together was fun, I love the classic pentagram harness also the Ferox hood that I am so lucky now to own, I can't wait to wear it out to festivals!

EARS & HOOD BY FEROX

What are your thoughts on the industry at the moment? You're in a fabulous position to comment with such a collection of work under your belt, what have been the biggest changes to the business since your first shoot? I have noticed the amount of models, photographers and everything in general go up but not always the quality. It's changed a lot and I am hoping it will have a turn around in the future but for some the creativity seems to have been lost in the 'alt' scene that was non-existent when I started out. Ladies you don't need tattoos or crazy hair to be alt, it should shine through in your personality, I have had two Bizarre covers and features as an un-tattooed blonde!

What's a day in the life of Ruby like then? What do you do for fun, what are you watching and listening to at the moment? I get up early and walk the dogs in the mud, have some fruit or a juice then go to the gym or do some work, I have gone back to listening to some old faves like Faith No More and Nirvana.

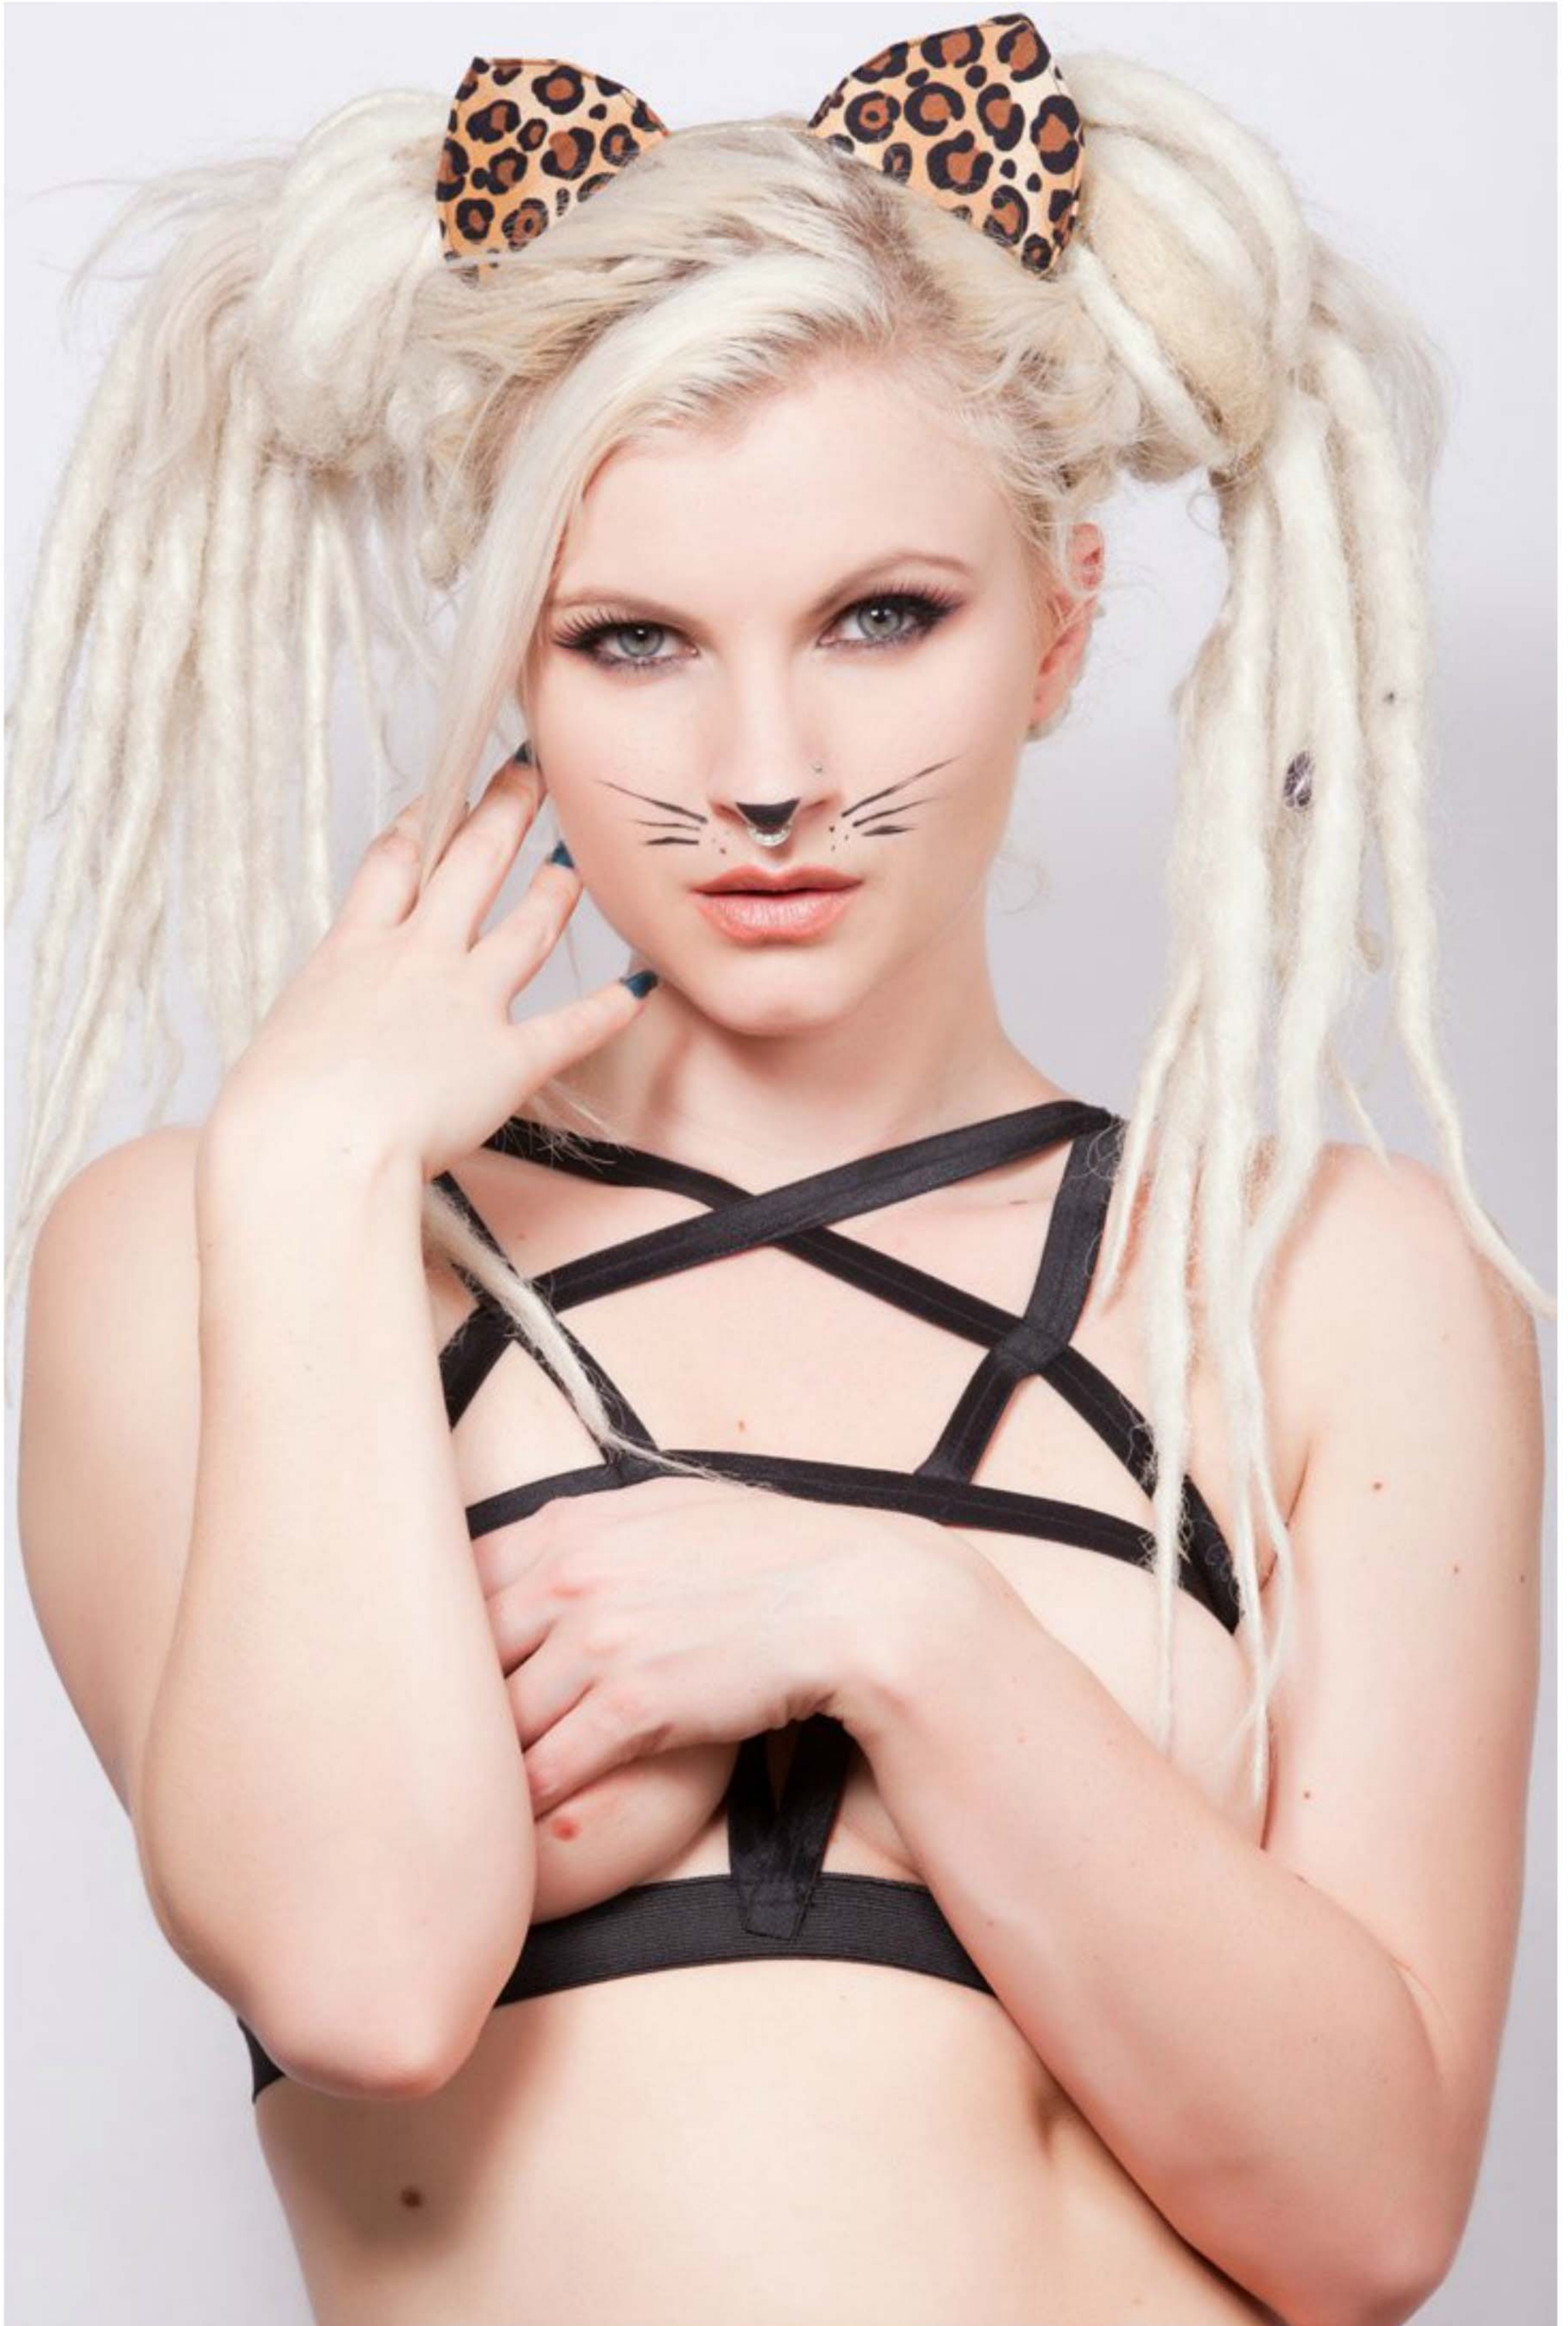

EARS BY FEROX HARNESS BY MALICE

With the rain and the cold hitting the UK hard recently, does the Winter weather negatively affect shooting in not very much? Are you longing for beach shoots and summer sun? Not too much, I will model through anything! I have done some shoots abroad and may pop overseas and get my beach fix soon.

Okay, pop quiz hot shot. You've been kidnapped by a gang of hooligans and they're demanding you suggest to them a fabulous online magazine with the hottest models and fantastic indie fashion. Which publication will you be suggesting? Ooh umm err Elite Online Mag? Do you know it?

And before you go, could we ask if you've got a message for your fans within our Elite readership? Those fabulous folks who support your work and our magazine... Thanks for reading and supporting us all please check out my Instagram and Twitter @ruby_true

JEMMA FUNGE

BLACK HAIR, BOOTY & BOOBS!

Hi Jemma, welcome to Elite! How would you describe your style? Hello! Thanks, good to be here! I'm not sure if I have a style really as some days I'll wear nothing but black but then other days I can be really girly, but anything tight fitting is good for me, oh and high wasted jeans!

What was it like to work with Dekker on this shoot? Crap... Nah ;) joking... I always love working with Dekker, our shoots are always a laugh and I always love the images we create! Plus he gives you beer and chocolate!

What was your favourite part of the shoot? Just being able to be creative really and exploring new ideas and seeing if they'll work and just generally dancing around being silly.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? Food, food, food! I love making things, like lingerie and jewellery, dancing is also a passion of mine :)

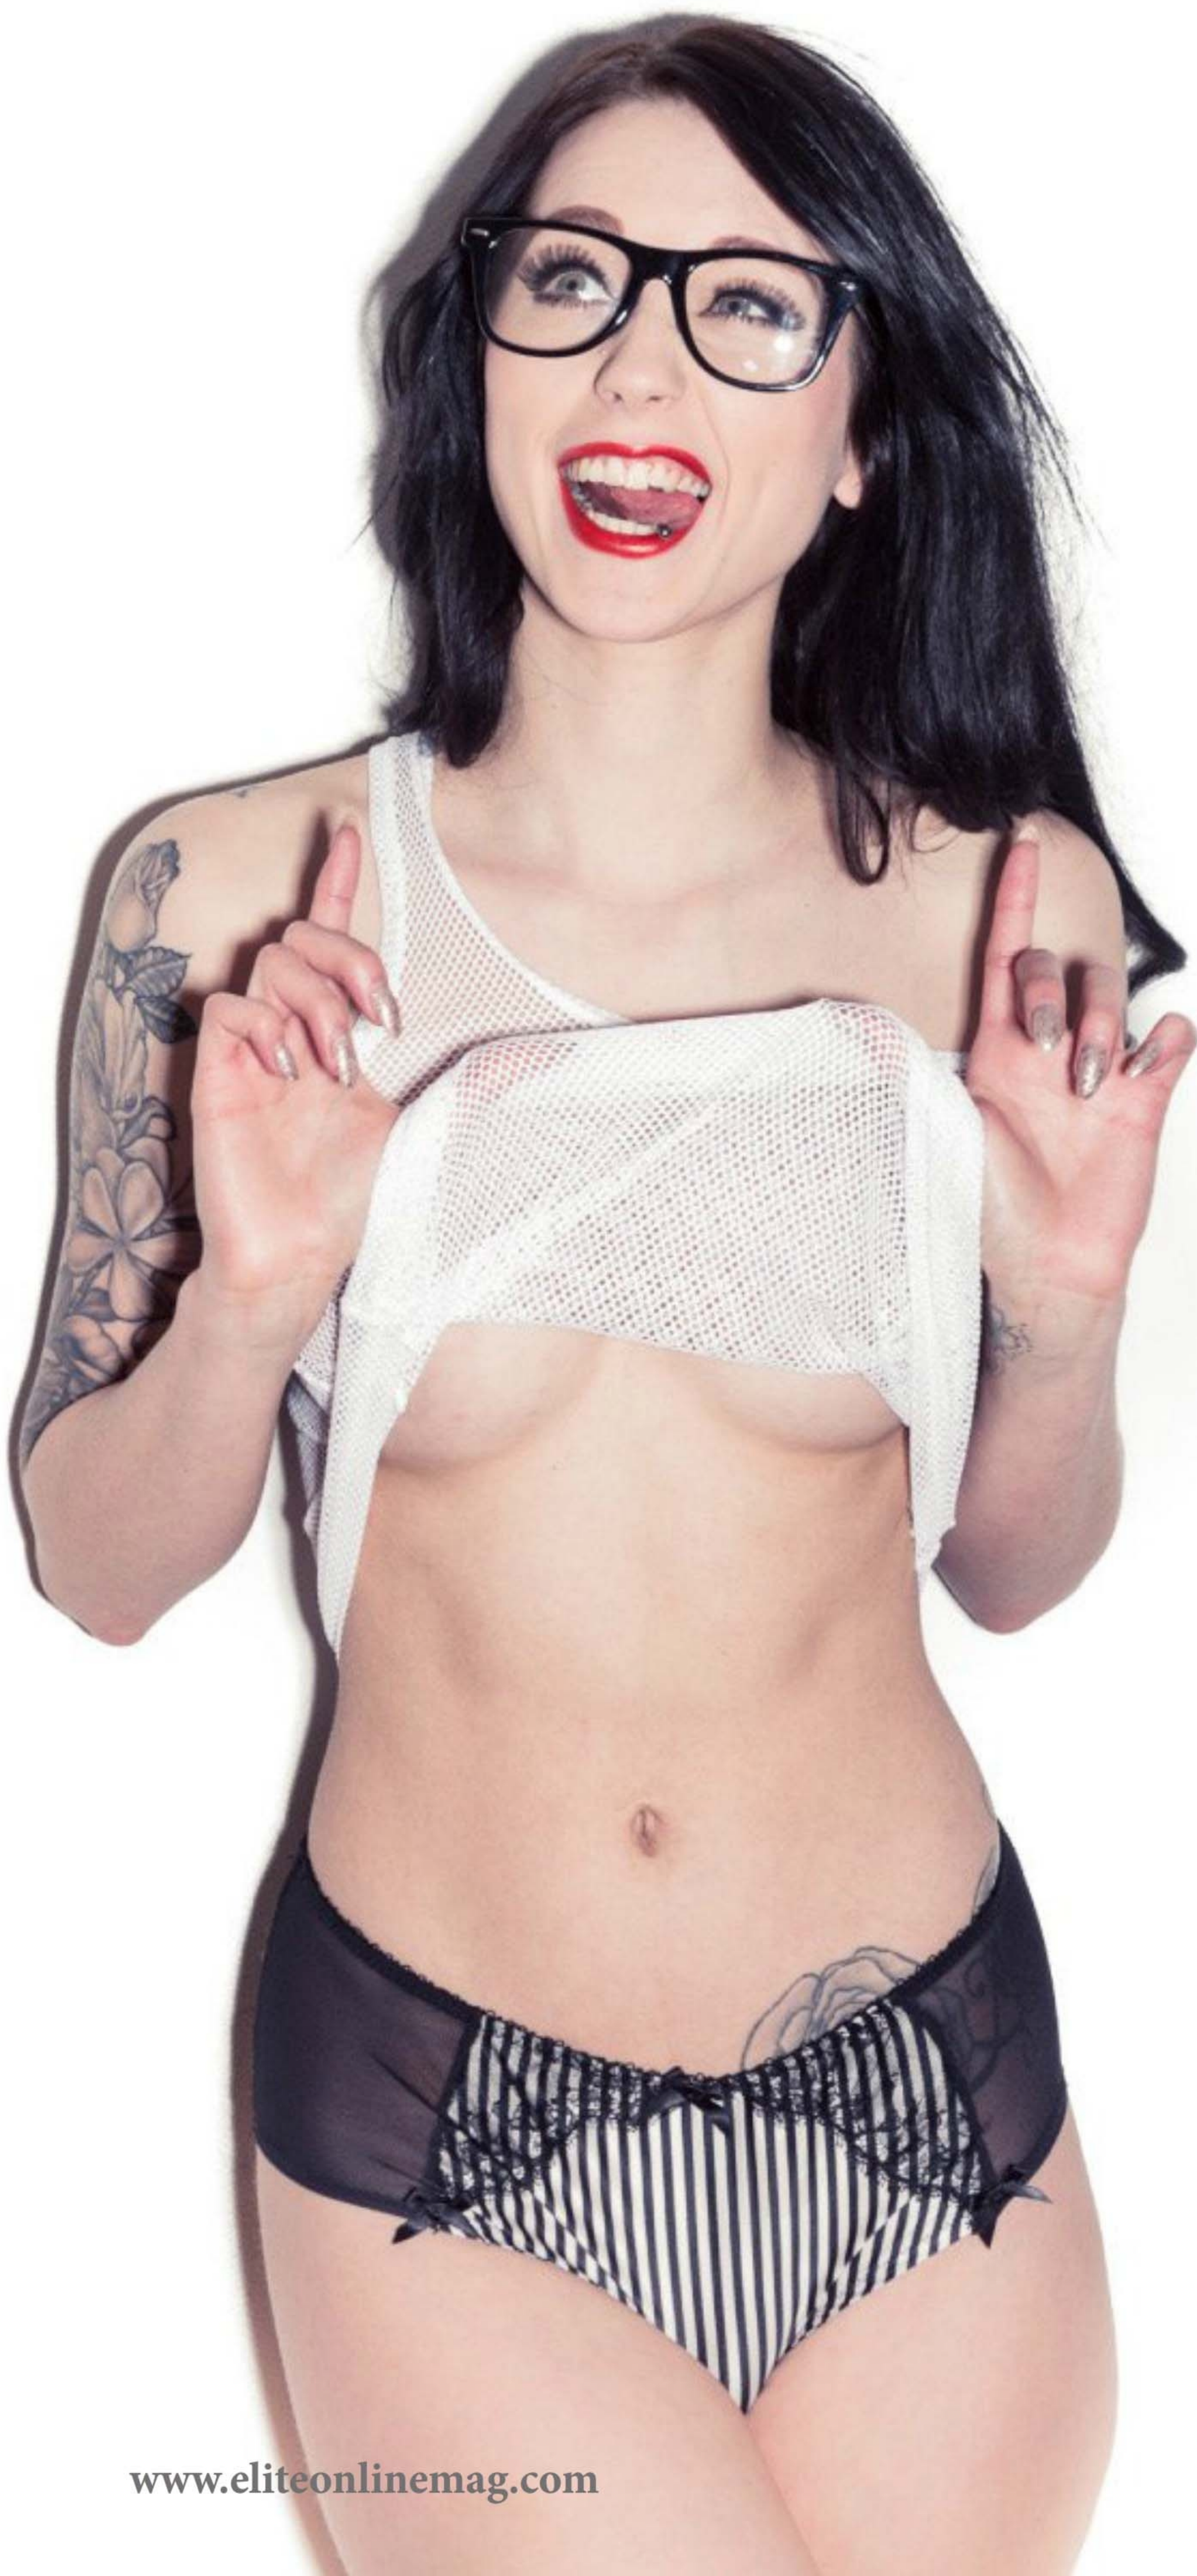

So how can a guy impress you? By being able to hold an interesting conversation, and confidence is always sexy too. I'm a bit soppy at heart too so romantic cheesy stuff normally goes down quite well.

What is the naughtiest thing you do? Sometimes I sleep in till 2pm ;)

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? Confidence, being sure of ones self and smelling good!

If you could have one superpower, what would it be? Such a difficult one, it'd be amazing to fly but I reckon I'd go for being invisible then I could sneak around being naughty.

If you could pick one celebrity to put on a stranded island to never be seen again, who would it be? Justin Bieber! It's gotta be right?!

What's your favourite rude word? Fuck!

What's the worst idea you have ever had? You really expect me to just think of one.. :P

Tell us something about you that people won't know: I used to have a lot of piercings and went a bit piercing crazy at one point, but now I only have my ears and tongue.

What would be your ideal night out? Pre drinks at a friends house with dancing and music and food, then maybe out for meal and then getting wasted in a club - standard.

What's your favourite chat up line of all time? I hate chat up lines, I would rather someone just be real and make conversation and buy me a drink.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? I just want to say a big thank you to all of my fans and everyone who keeps supporting me :) <3

D'OH!

WE'RE CRAZY ABOUT THIS GIRL AND YOU CAN SEE WHY

Photographer: Tripodski

Welcome to Elite Online Jessica. It's terrific to feature you on our virtual pages. How you doing? I am really well thank you, keeping super busy at the moment so loving that and getting excited for summer now too!

We here at Elite are massive fans of your stunning work. Tell us what it's like being you Jessica? Is there a lot of looking in the mirror involved? We know that's pretty much all we'd be doing if we were you. Haha not as much looking in mirrors or as fun as you probably think. I spend most my time in my onesie or gym clothes and no makeup! Just like everyone else except occasionally people take my picture!

Seriously though, your work to date has taken in so many epic aspects of the glamour genre. Was it the side of modelling that most interested you before getting involved in the business?

I love the more editorial Glamour, like the arty looking black and white nude shots you see. I think the female body is such a beautiful thing, it should be celebrated, and I think when you see these black and white images with heavy shadows and a bare or basic background it is just so sexy and so simple!

Which girls in the industry have inspired you and motivated you to pursue a career in front of the camera?

I think so many of the girls look amazing it would be hard to name just one or two! They're all unique and amazing in their own ways. For me though it's more the photographers that have inspired me! I used to follow, and still do, so many incredible photographers that would upload the hottest pictures! I would sit there and be like 'wow they have made her look amazing'. I think that is what first made me really think 'I really want to do this'. To have the opportunity to work with such genius and amazing photographers that could create these breathtaking, beautiful sexy images!

This issue is all about girls having fun. What is your idea of a fun night out (or in) Jessica? How do you unwind? Well as long as you have good friends then you will always have fun! I am lucky enough to have some amazing friends, the most recent addition being Rae, who has actually shot for your cover before! We had a crazy night out in Mayfair the other week which definitely got a bit out of hand! Lets just say the pictures were a little x-rated! Such a laugh though! Off to Portugal with her this week too so I'm sure we will have a fair few wild stories to tell when we get back. When it comes to unwinding though I just love to get my duvet on the sofa put a good film on and have a beer and a pizza! That's my favourite night in!

Model: Jessica Rose | Photographer: Tripodski
Words: Rich Alt-Girl Botherer

Is modelling fun? It might be a stupid question, but is being photographed just pure enjoyment for you, or can it be hard work and gruelling sometimes? I genuinely love modelling, like it is really tiring and you ache so much the next day you would of thought you had done a full body workout but you meet so many lovely people and shooting is always such a laugh when you have music playing, good snacks and youre all having fun and a laugh!

Your cover shoot for this month's Elite is spectacular. Do you enjoy yourself capturing the shots? I loved it! I have never worked with anyone from Elite before but will definitely be coming back if you will have me! Haha. Everyone was lovely and we had so much fun and good food! Must of eaten my bodyweight in brownies and flapjack during the shoot!

What do you remember from the days shooting Jessica? Any bloopers or favourite moments you'd care to share? My favourite was definitely shooting with the doughnuts! I was so naughty though I just kept eating them rather than posing with them! They were too yummy I couldnt help myself! The roller skates were definitely interesting to shoot in as well... Bambi on ice comes into mind! Haha.

All the images you've treated us to are jawdroppingly awesome of course. Did you prefer the studio set or the stuff on location better? What environment do you prefer to shoot in? I like the location shots we got I love how they look, however you can definitely be more versatile when shooting in a studio. So I guess my answer is I dont mind I enjoy both and they both have their pros and cons!

You're an Elite reader I'm sure. What is it about our humble publication that you enjoy the most? I love the range of girls you feature! So many different looks all in one mag! I love that you show all kinds of beauty as after all it is in the eye of the beholder!

With Summer on the horizon are you looking forward to lots of sunny shoots and working outside more? Definitely! I did a shoot on the beach near where I live the other day but it is still freezing, can't wait for it to warm up a little more and I can just spend all my time in a bikini!

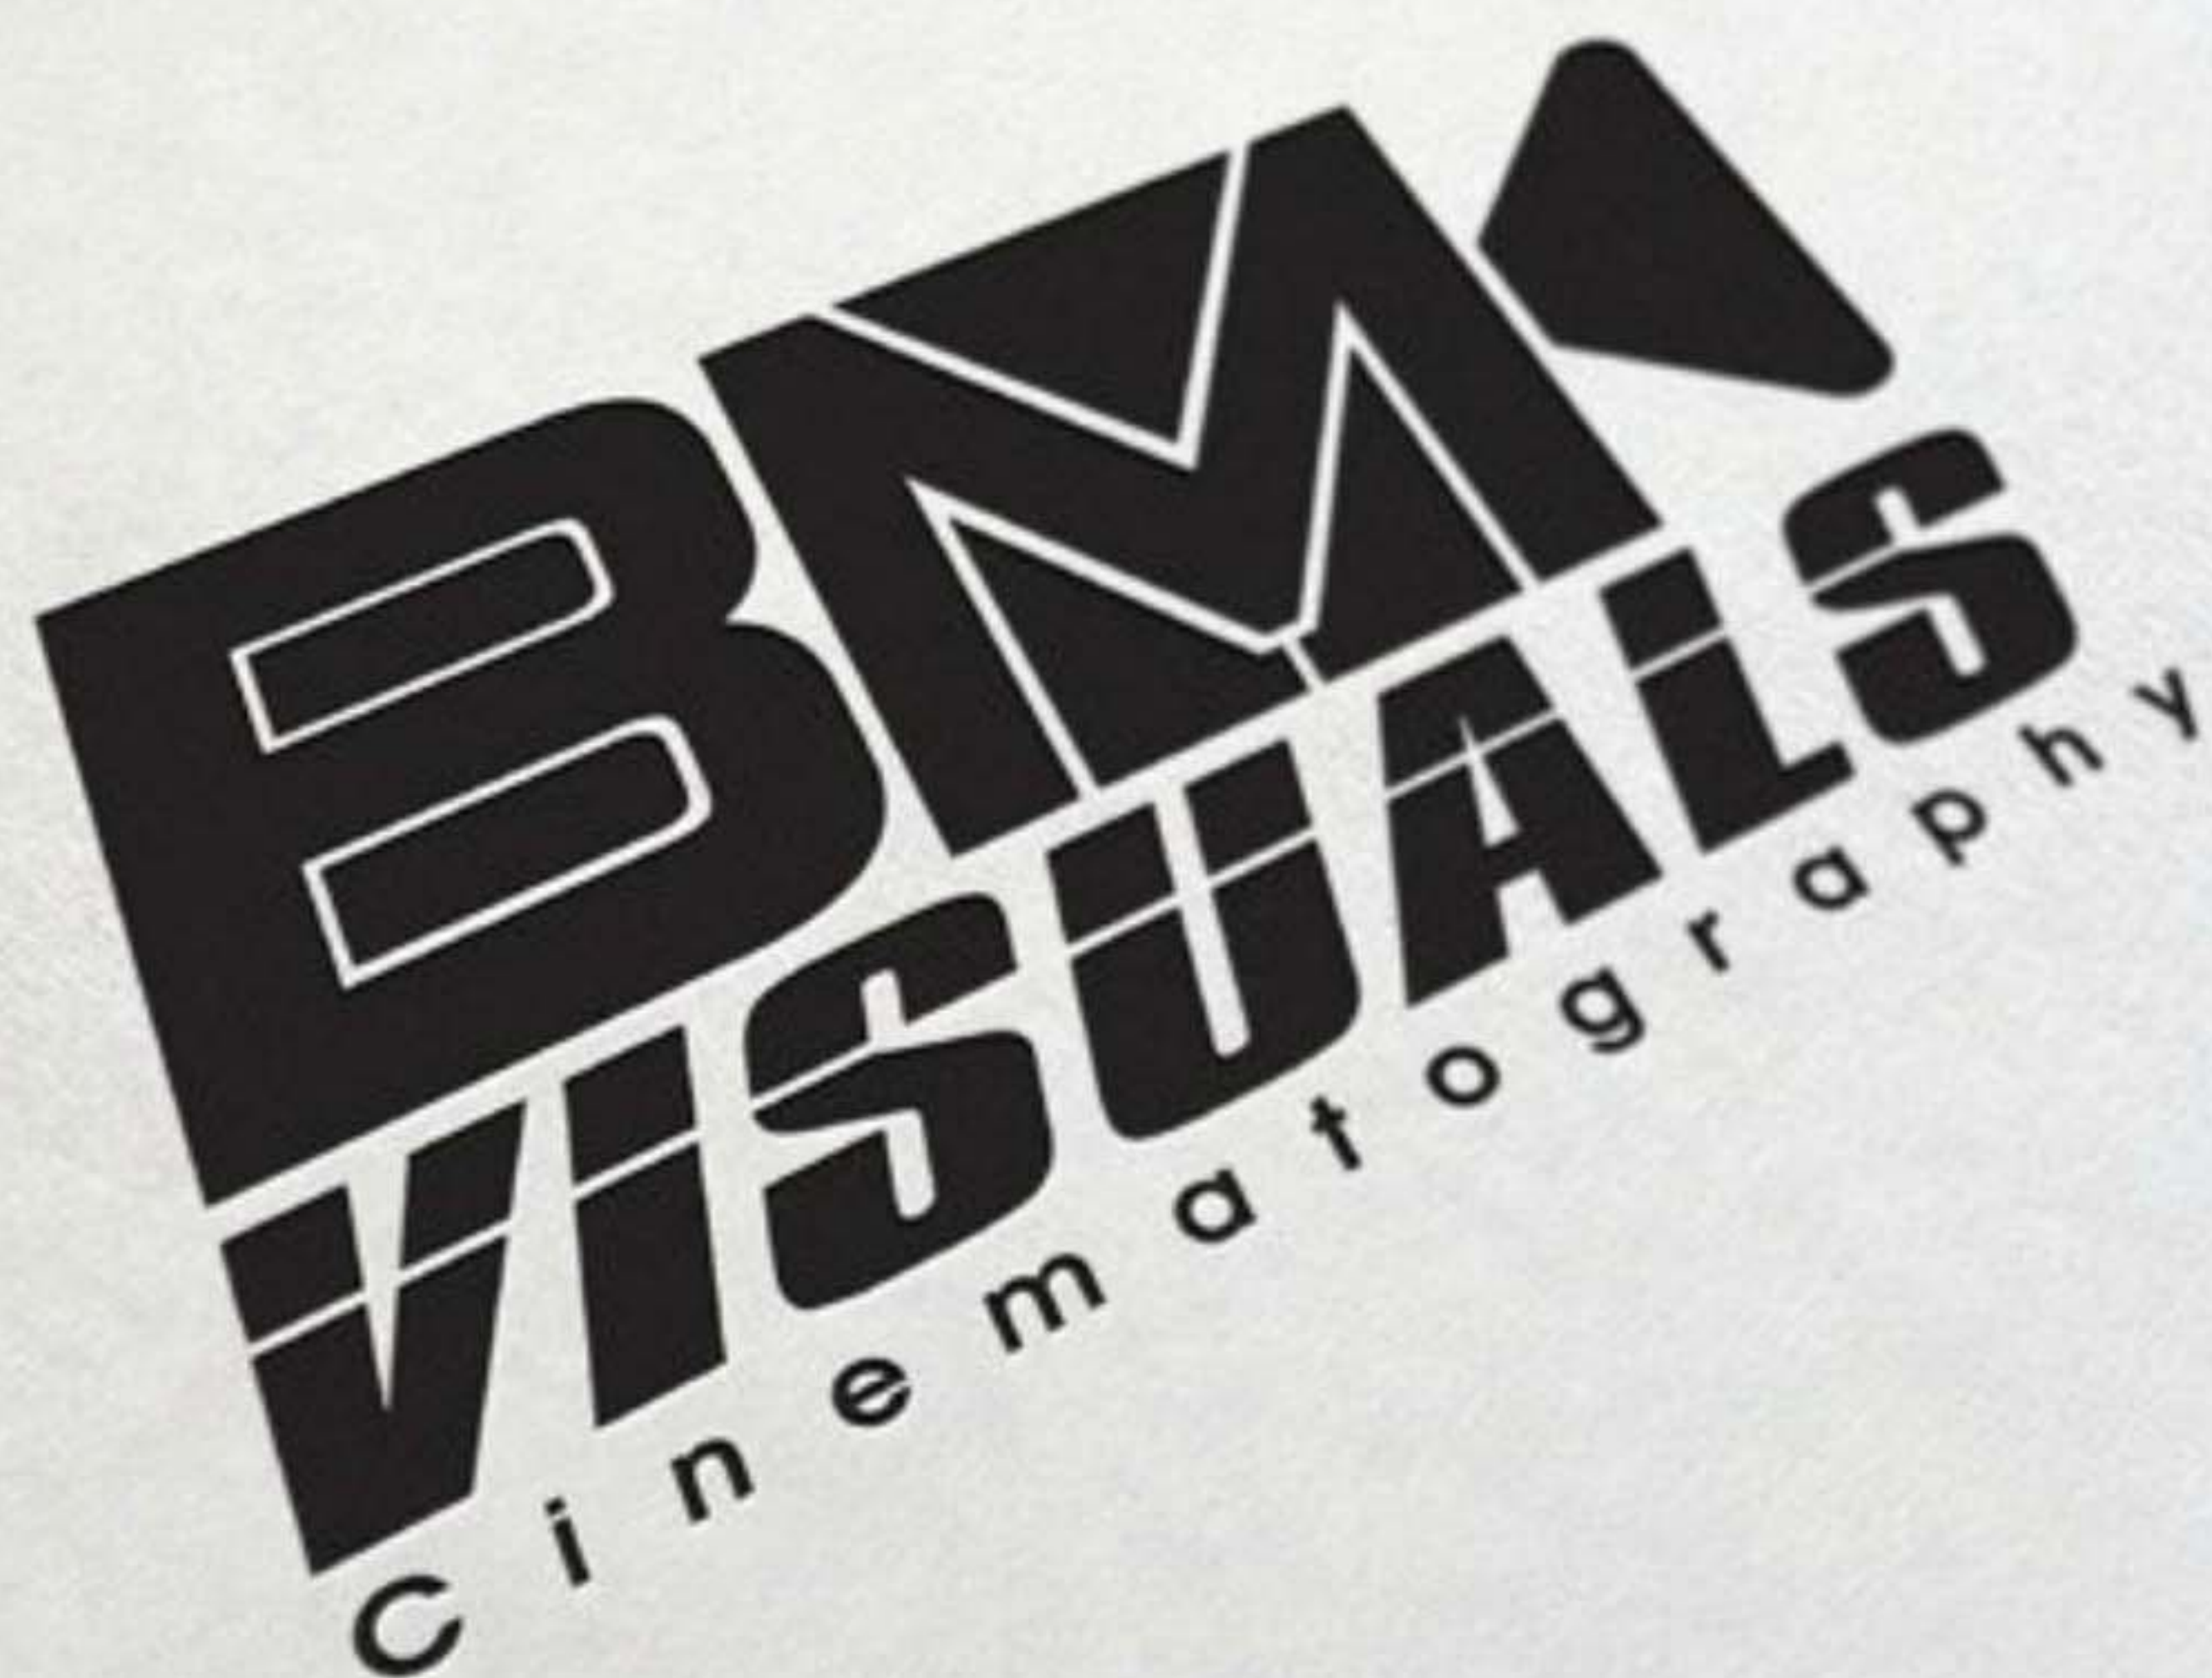

What does your summer wardrobe consist of mostly Jessica? Hmm haha, not a lot really, little dresses and short shorts! Stuff that looks cute but you can still run around in if you go to the beach or to the park!

Speaking of summer, and more specifically festival season. If Elite were to throw a summer shindig and you were in charge of arranging everything, who would be your dream a) Headlining act b) venue? (a) Brand New, I saw them in Manchester recently and they were so good! (b). On the moon if it was possible but until the technology is created to do that I would settle with it being in a big forest, I love how the festival 'Tomorrowland' is just in a big like woods and clearing, I like where 'Secret Garden Party' is held too it looks crazy!

Lastly before we let you go Jessica. How should Elite readers best enjoy your feature in this month's mag? In the sunshine with a beer! Is there any better way?

KIRSTIE LOUISE

Model: Kirsty Louise | Photographer: Tripodski | Words: Neale McGeever

Hi Kirstie! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry: I'm from County Durham. I was working in Ibiza when I was approached by a lads mag style website. They asked me to feature on their website and in return I'd get all the pictures to keep. I did 2 shoots for them and then after the Summer I sent my images to an agency. And that's where it all began!

How would you describe your style? I like to keep up with the latest trends. I just love shopping, I'm a bit addicted! It's bargains that I love the most.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot? I literally didn't stop laughing all day with these guys at Elite! I always have a good time with them. To be honest, it was one of my favourite to date. I was still chuckling to my self on the train home!

What was your favorite part of the shoot? The banter and the crazy choice of music!

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I dance a lot in my spare time. In the future I'd like to teach dance/fitness classes at the gym.

So how can a guy impress you? I like someone that can make me laugh, the banter needs to be on top form. I like a hard worker that's a massive turn on.

What is the naughtiest thing you do? I would say getting naked in front of the camera is pretty naughty!

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? A guy that takes control.

Do you have any tattoos or piercings? Just my ears and belly button.

Are you a high heels or trainers girl? I wear flats a lot to travel around in but when it comes to a night out a pair of high heels are a must!

Who would be your ideal housemate? These two crazy cats from Elite!

Beards - Yes or No? Facial hair yes... full on beard no!

Model: Kirstie Louise | Photographer: Tripodski | Words: Neale McGeever

What's the worst idea you have ever had? It was to go back to a house party after a night out of drinking a stupid amount of alcohol and carry on drinking everything possible. It seemed like a good idea at the time but it really wasn't the day's after.

If you could, what would you like to un-see? I wouldn't want to un-see anything. Everything is a learning curve. I'm a massive believer in everything happening for a reason.

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Watch this space ;)

Hello! Great to have you both in Elite, and together! How did you find shooting together?

Dee: Thank you, it's great to be a part of your magazine. Oh, I loved shooting with Leah, we have a natural spark together anyway, so we didn't have to put it on for the camera. It just worked!

Leah: It was heaps of fun, we work well together!

How was it shooting with Nick?

Dee: Nick is always a pleasure to shoot with, his direction and professionalism makes me always feel neat.

Leah: Nick is the best, he's always pleasant to work with!

If you could get anyone else involved in the shoot who would it be?

Dee: Hmm, definitely Jesse Jane! I'd be like 'heeeey little tiger, bring yourself over here!'

Leah: That's a good question! I'm pretty content with our twosome.

What is your favourite thing about each other?

Dee: Well I could list a few things but my favourite thing would be her natural sex appeal.

Leah: Dee's balance and flexibility! She can do handstands! I can only do wall stands haha.

What is your favourite thing about yourself?

Dee: I find it really easy to make friends and to socialize with all different people, so that would probably be my advantage. Makes life a lot easier for sure!

Leah: My generosity. I like to think of myself as a giving person. I love making other people happy.

You girls both always look amazing! What is your must-need product you always take with you?

Dee: Has to be sexy glossy lip gloss 100%... Natural skin with gloss...

Leah: I don't usually wear makeup during the day. I'm comfortable in my own skin, but if I'm going to an event I always bring my powder!

So you're both from down-under and awesome... are you pretty much breast friends now?

Dee: Haha. We love hanging out when we get the time. There are always plenty of mischievous things going on. We love playing tricks!

Leah: Haha we are really good friends. Our first encounter together was actually in Vegas. But you know what they say! What happens in Vegas...

You both are in great shape, what's your secret?

Dee: I train a lot and really look after my body when it comes to my diet. I love Hot Yoga and Pilates the most; it keeps me lean and strong.

Leah: I would love to say that I eat healthy and work out but I don't. I've tried and it's just not for me. I was blessed with good genes and I'm making the most of it while I can!

You are both gorgeous ladies, what's the best way a boy can impress you?

Dee: Just be yourself. I really hate fake people and I bet Leah would agree. I love someone to be smart and easy to get a long with. No bullsh*t, you know!

Leah: By being themselves, not trying to impress me but just naturally being a cool person to be around.

What's the one thing that would put you off?

Dee: Cockiness or backstabbing for sure! None of that around here!

Leah: A bad attitude!

What's a great night out for you?

Dee: I must say I do enjoy a nice dinner whether it is fine dining or relaxed, just with some really good company and nice wine.

Leah: A great night out for me is a few cocktails with my girlfriends at a bar, catching up on the gossip and just talking about life and all the weird shit girls talk about when they're drunk. That to me, is a good night out!

What song do you go crazy for when it comes on?

Dee: Let Me Take A Selfie – The Chainsmokers

Leah: Tap Out - Rich Gang. It's my song at the moment haha. I get into my zone when that song starts playing

Whats next for you lovely ladies?

Dee: Well, we are meeting in The Greek Islands so anything is possible.

Leah: It's a mystery! I'm just taking each day as it comes and focusing on my business. It's been a good year for me so far

HANNAH RACHEL

www.eliteonlinemag.com

Hi Hannah, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

I started through a friend! I got told I had a awesome style and a positive face! Haha! I got contacted from a photographer and it just carried on gem there! :)

How would you describe your style? My styles not really labeled but I do try my best to look girly and attractive if not you will find me walking to university in a boys jumper and my Timberlands.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot? It was great fun and a good experience, I was very relaxed through out which is always a good sign! :)

What was your favourite part of the shoot? The part where we wouldn't do our work and sit and talk about Game of Thrones for a hour! :')

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I sing a lot with my dad in recording studios and open mic nights. I'm also a art student so I love the creative life.

If you could be one person for the day, who would you be and why? I would be Beyoncé, just to know what it feels like to be perfect in every way!

If you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do? I would make everything to do with sweets and have Jodie marsh popping out of a HUGE Ferraro Roche! Mmm.

If you could be a superhero, who would you be and why? I would be elasto girl from The Incredibles, I would love to bend my body in all sorts of strange positions.

Where's the worst place you've been? School. Eww.

What's your favourite film? BIG tie between Shawshank Redemption and The Book of Eli.

Do you have any crazy phobias? I don't like the feel of velour, it makes me shiver.

So how can a guy impress you? DONT let me down. If you don't then I'm happy :)

What is the naughtiest thing you want to do? Steal a giraffe

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? I love bearded men. An extra bit of tickle.

What's your favourite fancy dress outfit? Something leather and TIGHT, S&M maybe? Ha!

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? Don't be shy of the skin you're born in. If you want to show that flesh, YOU SHOW THAT FLESH! :)

LIA SUNDIN

Model: Lia Sundin | Photographer: Emily Cromarty | Words: Neale McGeever

Hi Lia, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry:

I was born and bred in Gateshead. I first got launched into the industry when I took part in Miss Newcastle when I was 17 and then was signed by Tyne Tees Models for around 2 years. I then left the agency when I was studying in Manchester and did a variety of modelling work down there. Now I'm a model and director at Headline Models.

How would you describe your style?

I would describe it as conscious and changing like the wind. I never have a set style, sometimes I wake up loving snap backs and Nikes and sometimes I wake feeling vintage, it all depends on which side of the bed I wake up on.

What was it like to work with Emily on this shoot?

She's my best friend so it was just another bonding session but with me wearing far less clothes than usual, but Em from didn't mind :P

What was your favourite part of the shoot?

The roller blade set was definitely the most fun, I was like Bambi on ice but far less cute.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions?

I would say children, sports and travelling are my other passions. I have EDS which is a soft tissue disorder and it means I have to keep myself fit, so when I exercise not only do I love the endorphins but I enjoy it because I know how much its benefiting me in the long run. I have three brothers and two sisters so I come from quite a complicated big family and for as long as I can remember I have loved surrounding myself with children. Their honesty and innocence is one of the most refreshing and endearing things in todays age.

So how can a guy impress you? I'm quite easily impressed to be honest but not with things like money or power haha. Take me to a rugby match and buy me a beer and I will be more than satisfied. I think a man who's passionate about what's important in his life is verrrrry impressive. Oh, an easy trick for guys to impress most girls is dote on children, I dunno what it is about a guy with kids but it works.

What is the naughtiest thing you do? It' accidentally swear intront of my grandparents. NOT COOL!

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? Every girl loves it if a boy tells her how beautiful she is so thats always a winner, but it has to be genuine. Also I love it when a guy knows exactly what he wants and exactly how to do it. Lastly I'm not exactly the most petite girl in the world so it is a huge turn on when a guy is big enough to toss me over his shoulder.

If you could pick one celebrity to put on a stranded island to never be seen again, who would it be? Kristen Stewart. Dear God girl... just smile and stop grunting like a constipated sloth.

What's the worst idea you have ever had? Chugging vodka from the bottle. It's not cool or clever and I think I killed off around 6000 brain cells.

Tell us something about you that people won't know: I was the worlds most awkward and unfortunate teenager! I had glasses, braces, a double chin, a massive gut and a score of -10 on the cool scale. I was quite the nerd aswell which made me super popular at school... NOT!

What would be your ideal night out? I spent three years in Manchester getting steaming in clubs so I'm much less enthusiastic about those kind of nights now. I think I'm getting to old to be out dropping shapes until 4am. I would much rather go to a cool friendly bar/pub with good music good drinks and good craic, a dance floor should also be there for when I feel spontaneous.

What's your favourite chat up line of all time? The one I like to use on you lovely fellows is 'I've got 206 bones in my body can I have one more?' And the best one I have ever heard is 'if you were a car door I would slam you all night!'

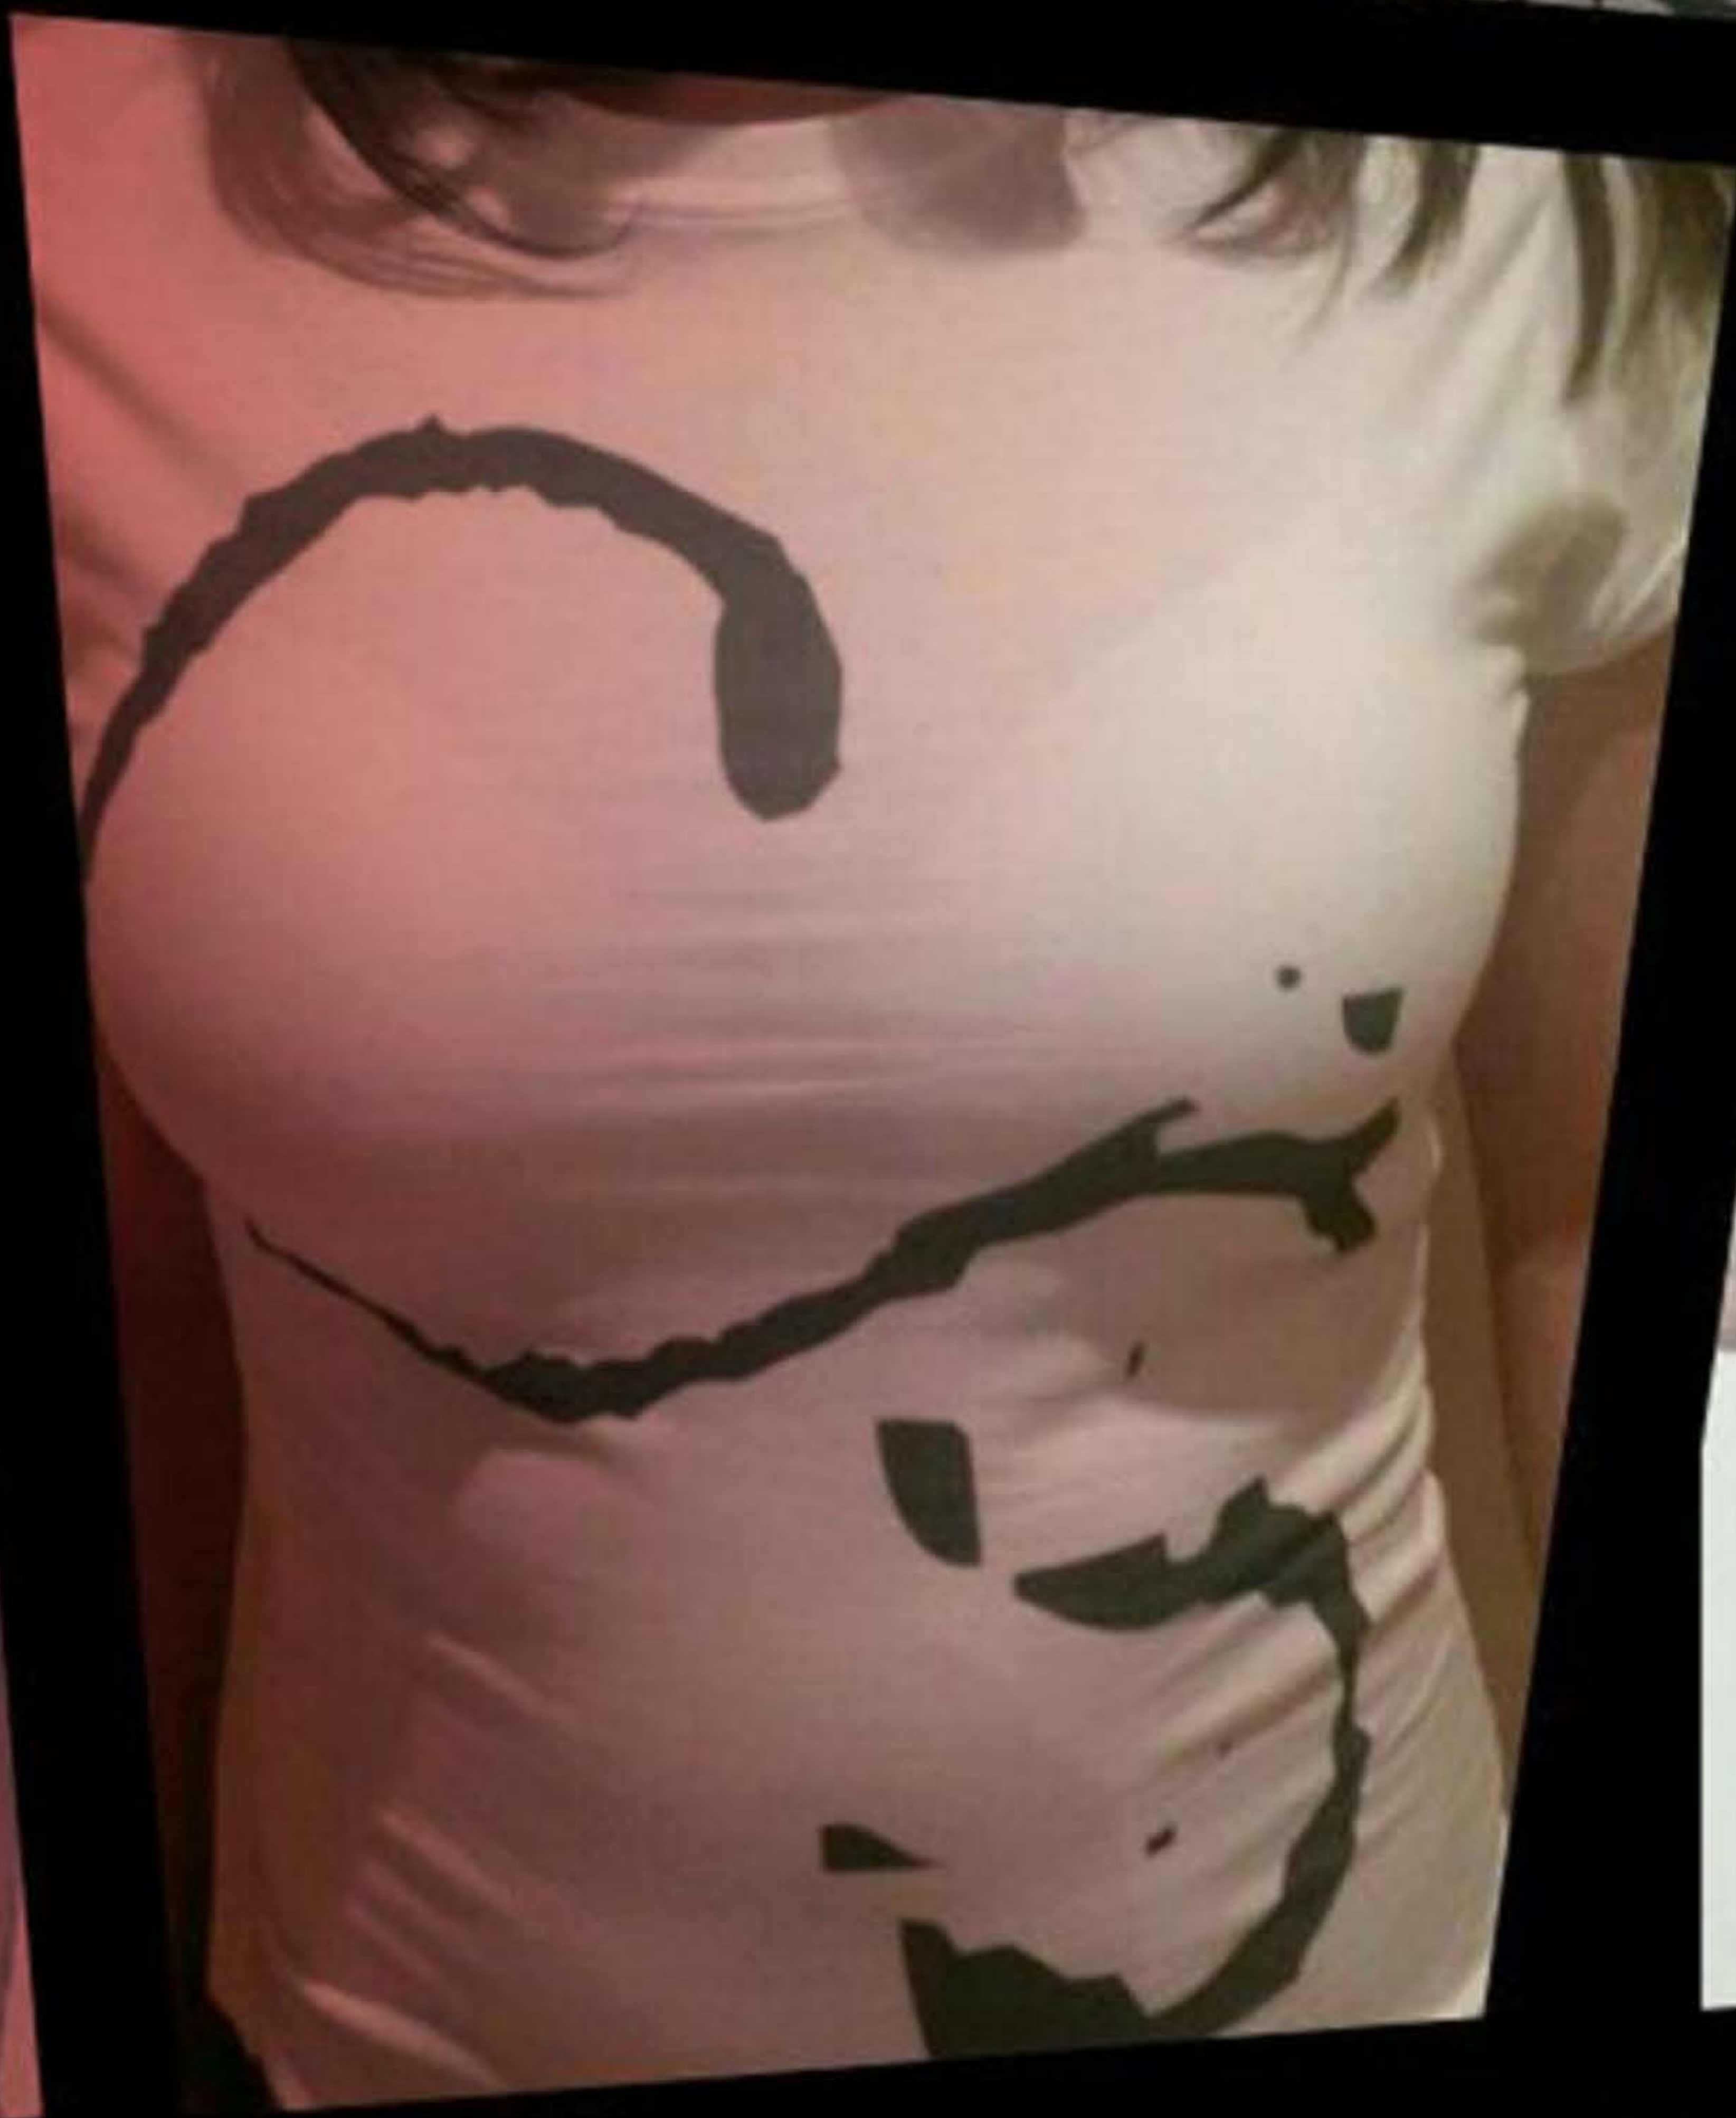

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? I would like to say I am honoured to be spread across this magazine for all you loyal fans and I hope you all like what you see! Get in touch if any of you want to be my homies.

INGÉ-KIRSEN

Model: Ingé-Kirsén | Photographer: Tripodski | Words: Neale McGeever

Hi Inge-Kirsten, welcome to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry: Hi, well I am originally from Newcastle but currently living in Cheltenham. I started modelling when I was really young, about 3, my mam got me into it, been doing it on and off since then but really got into it properly the last few years.

How would you describe your style? I have more of a casual style to me, I definitely dress according to what mood I'm in. I don't really tend to dress up much, but if I do I usually go with more of a rock feel.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot? Working with Tripodski was lots of fun, he's an awesome guy.

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I absolutely love going to the gym and working out. Lifting weights is my fave. I'd like to do a fitness shoot one day..

So how can a guy impress you? They have to have a good sense of humour and make me laugh, and be confident but not arrogant.

What is the naughtiest thing you do? Naughty? I'm a good girl!

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? A guy with tattoo's kissing my neck, mmm!

WHAT WAS YOUR FAVOURITE PART OF THE SHOOT? MY FAVOURITE PART OF THE SHOOT WAS DOING A FEW SHOTS WITH THE LOVELY KESHIA, EATING SWEETS AND PLAYING WITH HER BOOBS.

Model: Ingé-Kirsén
Photographer: Tripodski
Words: Neale McGeever

Do you have any tattoos or piercings? Yeah, I have 4 piercings and 6 tattoos, I'm planning to get more. I love the feeling of getting tattoos, it's very addictive.

Are you a high heels or trainers girl? Trainers. I'm definitely more of a comfort girl.

Who would be your ideal housemate? Will Ferrel or Tom Green, they're hilarious.

Beards - Yes or No? Yes, definitely beards.

What's the worst idea you have ever had? I worked a season in Ibiza a few years ago and after a few gin and tonics my friends and I thought it would be a good idea to streak naked at a pool party, little did I know when I ran out first they didn't follow, so I was naked all on my own... I was left pretty red faced after that.

If you could, what would you like to un-see? Sharknado, worst film ever..

Finally, is there anything you would like to say to the Elite readers? A big thanks to you guys for taking the time out to read my interview. I hope you like my pics and hopefully you'll see some more of me again soon.

KESHIA

THE FUN LOVIN' POCKET PRINCESS

Model: Keshia | Photographer: Tripodski | Words: Neale McGeever

Hi Keshia, welcome back to Elite! Tell us a bit about yourself, where you're from and how you got started in the industry: Hey! I'm Keshia. I'm a workaholic that loves pizza, cider and cats. I'm only 5'1 which a lot of people get surprised about! I got into the industry by throwing myself in the deep end and sending pics to Front magazine. Luckily they liked me and everything went on from there. I'm currently shooting in Portugal with Suicide Girls, so this industry is awesome!

How would you describe your style? I like to be grunge and I like a lot of skate brands.

What was it like to work with the photographer on this shoot? I absolutely love Graeme, he's my favourite.

What was your favourite part of the shoot? Meeting Inge was cool, I like the batman vs superman stuff we did!

Outside of modelling, do you have any other passions? I have a degree in Photography, so I love that, and keeping fit. Although I don't do diets.

If you could be one person for the day, who would you be and why? If I could wake up tomorrow as Beyoncé that would be fantastic.

If you could be in charge of Elite for one week, what would you do? Hmm I wouldn't change a thing! There are so many hot girls, nothing needs to change. Maybe I'd shoot next to them all!

If you could be a superhero, who would you be and why? I like Harley Quinn, but she's a villain so I guess Selina Kyle, because I'm already a crazy cat lady.

Where's the worst place you've been? I really didn't like Turkey when I visited, but that's about all. I love travelling to new places though.

What's your favourite film? Donnie Darko.

Do you have any crazy phobias? I don't just the usual... Spiders! But my friend has a phobia of buttons!

So how can a guy impress you? Don't try to impress me and you will. Just be nice and not creepy!

What is the naughtiest thing you do? Getting naked a lot for modelling is pretty naughty if you ask me ;)

What's a guaranteed turn on for you? The typical tattoos, beard, sort of homeless look haha.

What's your favourite fancy dress outfit? When I was poison ivy, that was awesome!
